FROM YOUR PRESIDENT.....

Bill Grawe

Dear Members;

Our 2015 season is here! The directory has been distributed, the programs are nearly completed and the planning for the rallies is well underway.

Notice that the September rally is a TBA. At this time, I am planning to caravan to Detroit Michigan, and visit the Ford Dearborn museums. With good luck, the Turners will be able to attend. More on this later.

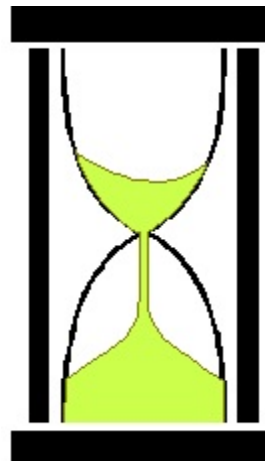

Cabin fever? Your first function is just around the corner, the St. Patrick's Day Brunch, Saturday March 14 at the Golden Corral, Kolb Drive, Fairfield off Winton Road, just North of I 275. Be there by 9:00 AM. They do a great omelet, big enough to split with your spouse or friend. Plus, all the other breakfast items. Call Darren Baker, 937-609-9415 and let him know you will be there.

We are in Florida, staying at Paradise Park, Punta Gorda. Steve and Sandy Grawe caravanned down with us. On the way we stopped at Travelers Rest and spent a couple of days with John and Judy Hice. They are doing well. John is even playing golf.

Joyce and I and Steve and Sandy took some time out of Paradise Park to attend the Florida State Rally. The rally focused on touring the city of St. Augustine, oldest city in the US, established in 1656. Joyce chaired the "Line Dance" program.

On February 21, I hosted a "Unit Meal" at the Whiskey Creek steak house. We had an attendance of 18, including Marjorie Lutz, Region 4 President and her Mate, Guy; Sandy and Steve Grawe; Bev and Bob Drake; Pam and Frank Voynovich; Mary Lou and Sonny Thompson; Betsy and Vern Ketchum, Columbus Unit; Donna and Boyd Richards, Miami Valley Unit; Delores and John Sellers, not yet WBCCI members; and Joyce and me.

Mark your calendars, the Soup Rally is April 23-26. This is a joint rally with Columbus and Miami Valley, and IS a Buddy Rally. BE REMINDED - collect your "stuff" for the auction, and be prepared to buy those "treasures" you will surly find.
